

Meyer Repair Area - Echo

Caldor
CA-ENF-24030
October 12, 2021

|                         |                       |                                   |   |                                    |
|-------------------------|-----------------------|-----------------------------------|---|------------------------------------|
| Other Property          | X Division Break      | Mobile Weather Unit               | Repair Line                             | Secondary Fuel Breaks              |
| Pump                    | Incident Command Post | Internet Access                   | Road Repair                             | HazTree Priority Roads             |
| Water Tank              | Drip Point            | Responder                         | Route                                   | Repair Status Accountable Property |
| Aerial Hazard           | Shading Area          | Water Source                      | Contained Line                          | Completed - Inspected              |
| Check Point             | Road Repair           | Completed Dozer Line              | Wildfire Daily Fire Perimeter           | In Use - Fire Management           |
| Dip Site                | Repair Point          | Completed Fuel Break              | Forest Service Land                     | Completed - Ready for Inspection   |
| Helibase                | Landings or Log Deck  | Completed Hand Line               | State Public Lands                      | In Progress                        |
| Helibase                | Fence - Cut/Damaged   | Completed Mixed Construction Line | Other State Lands                       | Repair Needed                      |
| Sling Site              | Dozer Push            | Completed Road as Line            | Private, Local Government, Undesignated |                                    |
| Unimproved Landing Area | Clean Up Area         |                                   | Primary Fuel Breaks                     |                                    |

