Comments /notes on tonight's mission and this interpretation: The Paradise fire continued to grow with intense heat bands along multiple portions of the perimeter. Sections of scattered heat in the interior continue to cool which is reflected in larger areas of isolated heat sources inside the perimeter. -The fire has crossed Paradise Ridge to the south and is moving towards Squirrel Creek. -The fire does not appear to have crossed Marble Fork, but I can't be 100% certain. If it has crossed it would be in Deep Canyon, north of Potwisha Campground, IVO the end of Potwisha Flume Access Road. -The fire has arrived at and appears to have crossed the General's Highway IVO Hospital Rock picnic area and further north IVO Amphitheater Point The request tonight was to map each fire separately. The total interpreted acreage for both fires was 9373 which is a change of 2454 acres from yesterday. Please contact me if you have questions or concerns or feedback.
