Comments / notes on tonight's mission and this interpretation:  I began interpretation with today's NIFS fire perimeter since I saw that you had requested I do so. I'm puzzled by that decision since the NIFS perimeter looks like someone took my perimeter and jostled it so that it is the same shape but no longer aligns with the fire perimeter. I did some minor orthorectification to compensate for the small amount of displacement I found between the IR scan and orthoimagery.
