

AMERICAN BADGER

Photo:
Oregon Dept. of Fish and Wildlife

PACIFIC NORTHWEST
FIRE ADAPTED COMMUNITIES

www.pnwfac.org

Illustration by Jimmie Turner

Fun Fact: Badgers use their long, sharp front claws to dig for rodent prey. This talent sometimes attracts coyotes, which wait nearby for prey to make a break for it.

Fire Prevention Tip: Don't let your fire make a break for it and start a wildfire! Dig, stir and drown your fire to make sure it is dead out.

STEPPEUP

Protect Habitat | Prevent Wildfires

