Comments Starting perimeters from NIFS features service, pulled at around @2000 PDT September 12. The north half of the fire is very quiet. Modest heat perimeter expansion observed along the entire extent of the southern perimeter. Unburned areas in the center of the perimeter continue to shrink. Southern expansion of heat perimeter was accompanied by limited areas isolated areas of intense heat. Scattered heat is more dense around the central-southern edge. No isolated heat points were observed outside of the heat perimeter tonight. Of note, there is a line of intense heat moving north toward the main fire perimeter, between Little Turkey Tail and Green Ridges.
