INCIDENT OBJECTIVES (ICS 202)

1. Incident Name:	2. Operational Period: DAY
PINE GULCH	Date/Time From: 09/03/2020 0600 THU	Date/Time To: 09/03/2020 2100 THU
3. Objective(s): 1. Provide for firefighter and public safety by utilizing sound risk management processes and life/safety principles. 2. Follow CDC as well as local, state, and agency specific guidance to prevent COVID-19 spread. 3. Curtail adverse impacts to residences, commercial properties, and critical community infrastructure. Values at risk include the community of De Beque and surrounding area, private land and ranches, BLM infrastructure, cultural and historic sites, power transmission lines, oil & gas infrastructure, sensitive species, range infrastructure, and recreation infrastructure. 4. Implement a full suppression strategy utilizing a variety of tactics to limit fire size and achieve containment. 5. Coordinate with affected partners to ensure timely and accurate distribution of information to the public. 6. Maintain and develop relationships with adjacent agency staffs, cooperators, permittees, and stakeholders. 7. Ensure incident cost is commensurate with the values at risk. 8. Implement suppression repair plan.
4. Operational Period Command Emphasis: 1. Implement strategies and tactics that commit responders only to operations where and when they can be successful, and under conditions where important values at risk are protected with the least exposure necessary. 2. Hold existing control lines and maintain structure protection where threats exist. Aggressively suppress fire that escapes or threatens to escape control lines. 3. Mop-up only to the extent necessary to prevent escape or protect values at risk. 4. Coordinate with Resource Advisors to refine and implement plans for suppression repair. 5. Implement actions associated with the fire crossing management action points (MAPs).
General Situational Awareness: Follow COVID mitigation measures such as social distancing, maintaining module of one separation, wearing face coverings, and practicing good personal hygiene. Go to medical tent at ICP at the first sign of a cough or flu like symptoms. Maintain situational awareness. Ensure complacency doesn't set in as you complete daily operational tasks.

To: All Incident Personnel, Pine Gulch 2020

As Southern Area National Type I Incident Commander, I am committed to a policy of “zero tolerance” of inappropriate behavior during incident operations. Any form of harassment, discriminatory practices, or disrespectful behavior will not be tolerated. Known or reported acts will be dealt with appropriately.

I am particularly concerned about the perception that alcohol has a place in any of the Incident facilities. It is not appropriate to indulge in alcoholic beverages during any fire assignment.

The National Team from the Southern Region has a policy of “NO ALCOHOL” from the time of dispatch until the time of physical release from the Incident. Members of the Team voluntarily comply with this policy; all incident personnel will be expected to do so also.

We endorse, support, and expect an attitude of mutual respect for all Incident personnel and the public we serve. We also, endorse the attitude and work ethic that places “Safety First, every time on every Incident.” We expect nothing less.

/s/ Mike Dueitt

FIRE BEHAVIOR FORECAST
Incident Name	Pine Gulch	Forecast Number	31
Operational Period	09/03/2020	Date/Time Issued	09/02/2020 - 1800
FACTORS INFLUENCING FIRE BEHAVIOR
WEATHER: See Pine Gulch Weather Forecast in IAP
FUELS: All unburned fuels remain receptive to ignition if subjected to heat source. Live Woody Fuel Moisture: Oak-86%, Sage-79%, Juniper-72% Forecasted Min. Fine Dead Fuel Moisture Content: 4% Heavy Dead Fuel Moisture Content (1000hr): 5% Current ERC: 75 (↓13)
Local Thresholds for Critical Fire Behavior: 20' Winds: >18-24 mph RH: < 15-20% Temp: >81-89° max recovery >40% 1000: <10%, ERC 7G: 90% = 91 and 80% = 85
FIRE BEHAVIOR Outputs
GENERAL:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • No fire perimeter growth is expected. • Heavy dead and down fuels will remain very dry and will continue to burn despite recent precipitation. • Smoldering and creeping fire activity will persist. Isolated pockets of fuel will continue to burn out where heat sources remain. • New ignitions outside of the current containment lines will have the potential for active fire spread within continuous grass/shrub fuels. If new ignitions occur with a wind event fire spread will be very rapid, with the potential for single tree torching, isolated crown fire, and short-range spotting (0.2 mi.). Stay vigilant!
Maximum Head Fire Rate of Spread (ROS) & Flame Length (FL) (30% slope)
Winds	5 mph	10 mph	20 mph (Gusts)
Grass/Shrub (GS2)	ROS = 23 ft/min FL = 5 feet	ROS = 62 ft/min FL = 8 feet	ROS = 160 ft/min FL = 12 feet
Probability of Ignition: 78% Potential for new starts and fire growth remain high. Fuels are still extremely dry.
Areas of Concern
DIV Bravo Few isolated heat sources in deep draws along the southern fire edge in the Munger Creek area remain. Fire may continue to move down slope to the south in unburned fuels until it encounters areas of rim rock and scree.
DIV Delta/Echo Isolated heat sources remain in deep draws along the southern rim of the East Salt Creek main canyon, between DP-25 and H-11. The northerly wind component will continue to keep any interior fire moving upslope and toward the interior.
Night: Diminishing night RH recoveries will provide favorable conditions for smoldering fire for most of the night. Weakening winds overnight will moderate any fire that has become active during the day.
AIR OPERATIONS: Minimal smoke production and moderate winds will not hamper Air Operations.
SAFETY: Information concerning hazards is useless unless shared. Communicate your observations with those around you.
Send any fire behavior observations or photos to: michaeldward@usda.gov & gregory.titus@fws.gov

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Take charge of the scene – inform the Division Supervisor and Communications that you are the IWI IC and establish radio communications (frequencies, channels). Identify the emergency name – (Ex. Division A medical, Fish Meadows medical, Highway 21 accident.) Assign or begin patient assessment Medical Incident Report (MIR) and first aid. Request additional medical resources on division/branch or across incident. Transmit MIR patient information to Communications. Determine patient transportation through consultation with line medical personnel and Medical Unit Leader. Consider transportation time, risk to personnel, destination facility and available operational resources. If air transport is chosen, implement the plan for alternative transportation in the event aircraft cannot complete the mission. Order transportation resources through Communications as early as possible. Notify Communications as resources arrive and any patient status changes. Names of injured or deceased individuals will not be transmitted on the radio. Initiate documentation for future investigation; if a line safety officer is available, assign them to lead documentation. Do not move deceased individuals, gear or personal effects except to accomplish rescue work or protect the safety of others. Obtain written documentation of witnesses. The Unit Log, ICS 214, may be used for the initial documentation, but a subsequent narrative will be required. As appropriate, conduct an After Action Review to determine successes, areas to improve and lessons learned.

HEALTH AND SAFETY MESSAGE

“We don’t plan on luck to be safe, we plan on sound risk management and good decisions.” ~ The Red Team

INCIDENT: Pine Gulch Wildfire	DATE: Thursday 3 September 2020
Major Hazards & Risks: COMPLACENCY
We have heard it our whole fire career, “Don’t get complacent.” That term gets thrown around so much that it gets dismissed. Is that complacency itself? It reminds me of when the Safety Officer at morning briefings states “Be safe out there.” We have all heard it and rolled our eyes or had other thoughts on our mind rather than really thinking about it. This is not a jab at safety officers, they have a constant struggle to keep people engaged with the common priority of firefighter and public safety. It’s a hard job, and obviously no one wakes up and tries to put themselves in harm’s way. So after some thought we decided to look at how complacency is defined and what it should mean to us in the fire environment. Merriam Webster: self-satisfaction especially when accompanied by unawareness of actual dangers or deficiencies. Dictionary.com: a feeling of quiet pleasure or security, often while unaware of some potential danger, defect, or the like; self-satisfaction or smug satisfaction with an existing situation, condition, etc. Cambridge Dictionary: a feeling of calm satisfaction with your own abilities or situation that prevents you from trying harder. Freedictionary.com: A feeling of contentment or self-satisfaction, especially when coupled with an unawareness of danger, trouble, or controversy. All of these have a common theme. A general feeling that things are ok and you are comfortable. In other words things are routine, ops normal, ops redundant. So let ask ourselves a few questions to gauge where we are at currently. Are we in a routine situation? Are we fatigued to the point where we think everything is routine? Are we dismissive to a hazard, later in the season, that would have drawn more attention to earlier in fire season? What can we control currently? We have no silver bullet to stop complacency. Recognition of our surroundings may be the first step. Currently we have little fire to fight and are in the suppression repair business which is repetitive and tedious. It has been a long fire season already, and maybe we’re short on rest and fatigued. There may be external factors that distract us from the task at hand. This is a classic recipe for complacency and a potential accident, injury, or worse. IDEAS! Communicate with each other to ensure it’s a priority to stay engaged on risk vs. benefit. Being vigilant in your attention to task and your surroundings is one thing we can control and keep in mind nothing is routine, ever. “Look up, look down, and look around. Stop, think, before you act. If you see something, say something.” As you drive back to fire camp tonight, think back to three shifts ago. Do you remember any details from that drive? If not maybe complacency is setting in.

Thank you for your time and consideration
