TAILGATE BRIEFING SHEET 2 OF 2

☐ SAFETY MESSAGE

Safety Officer: John Barnes

Incident:

Date:

Time:

Sweat Farm Road

June 24, 2007

Day

Major Hazards and Risks:

- Driving
- Communication
- Hydration
- Equipment

Driving – Please be aware of situation around you when driving. You could meet hundreds of 4 - 20 ton projectiles literally feet from you. Beware the inattentive driver! Look ahead, behind, and to the side – SITUATIONAL AWARENESS!

Communication – Make sure you understand your task – ask questions, give feed back. Make sure you give clear instructions – ask for feed back – encourage questions.

Hydration – Temperatures are expected to be high again. Be sure to drink plenty of WATER before, during and after shift.

Equipment - Keep your distance from heavy equipment; make sure operator knows your location. Don't approach moving equipment until you are sure operator is aware of your presence and he has stopped operations. Watch for swinging log ends and domino effect of moving trees, and snags! Also watch for "critters" that may be escaping from disrupted debris piles.

IRPG Note for Communication:

Communication Responsibilities

All firefighters (and equipment operators) have five communication responsibilities:

- Brief others as needed
- Debrief your actions
- Communicate hazards to others
- Acknowledge messages
- Ask if you don't know

In addition, all leaders of firefighters (and equipment operators) have the responsibility to provide complete briefings that include a clearly stated "Leaders Intent."

- Task = What is to be done
- Purpose = Why it is to be done
- End State = How it should look when done

Communicate this!

Human Resource Message

"Live life to the fullest..."

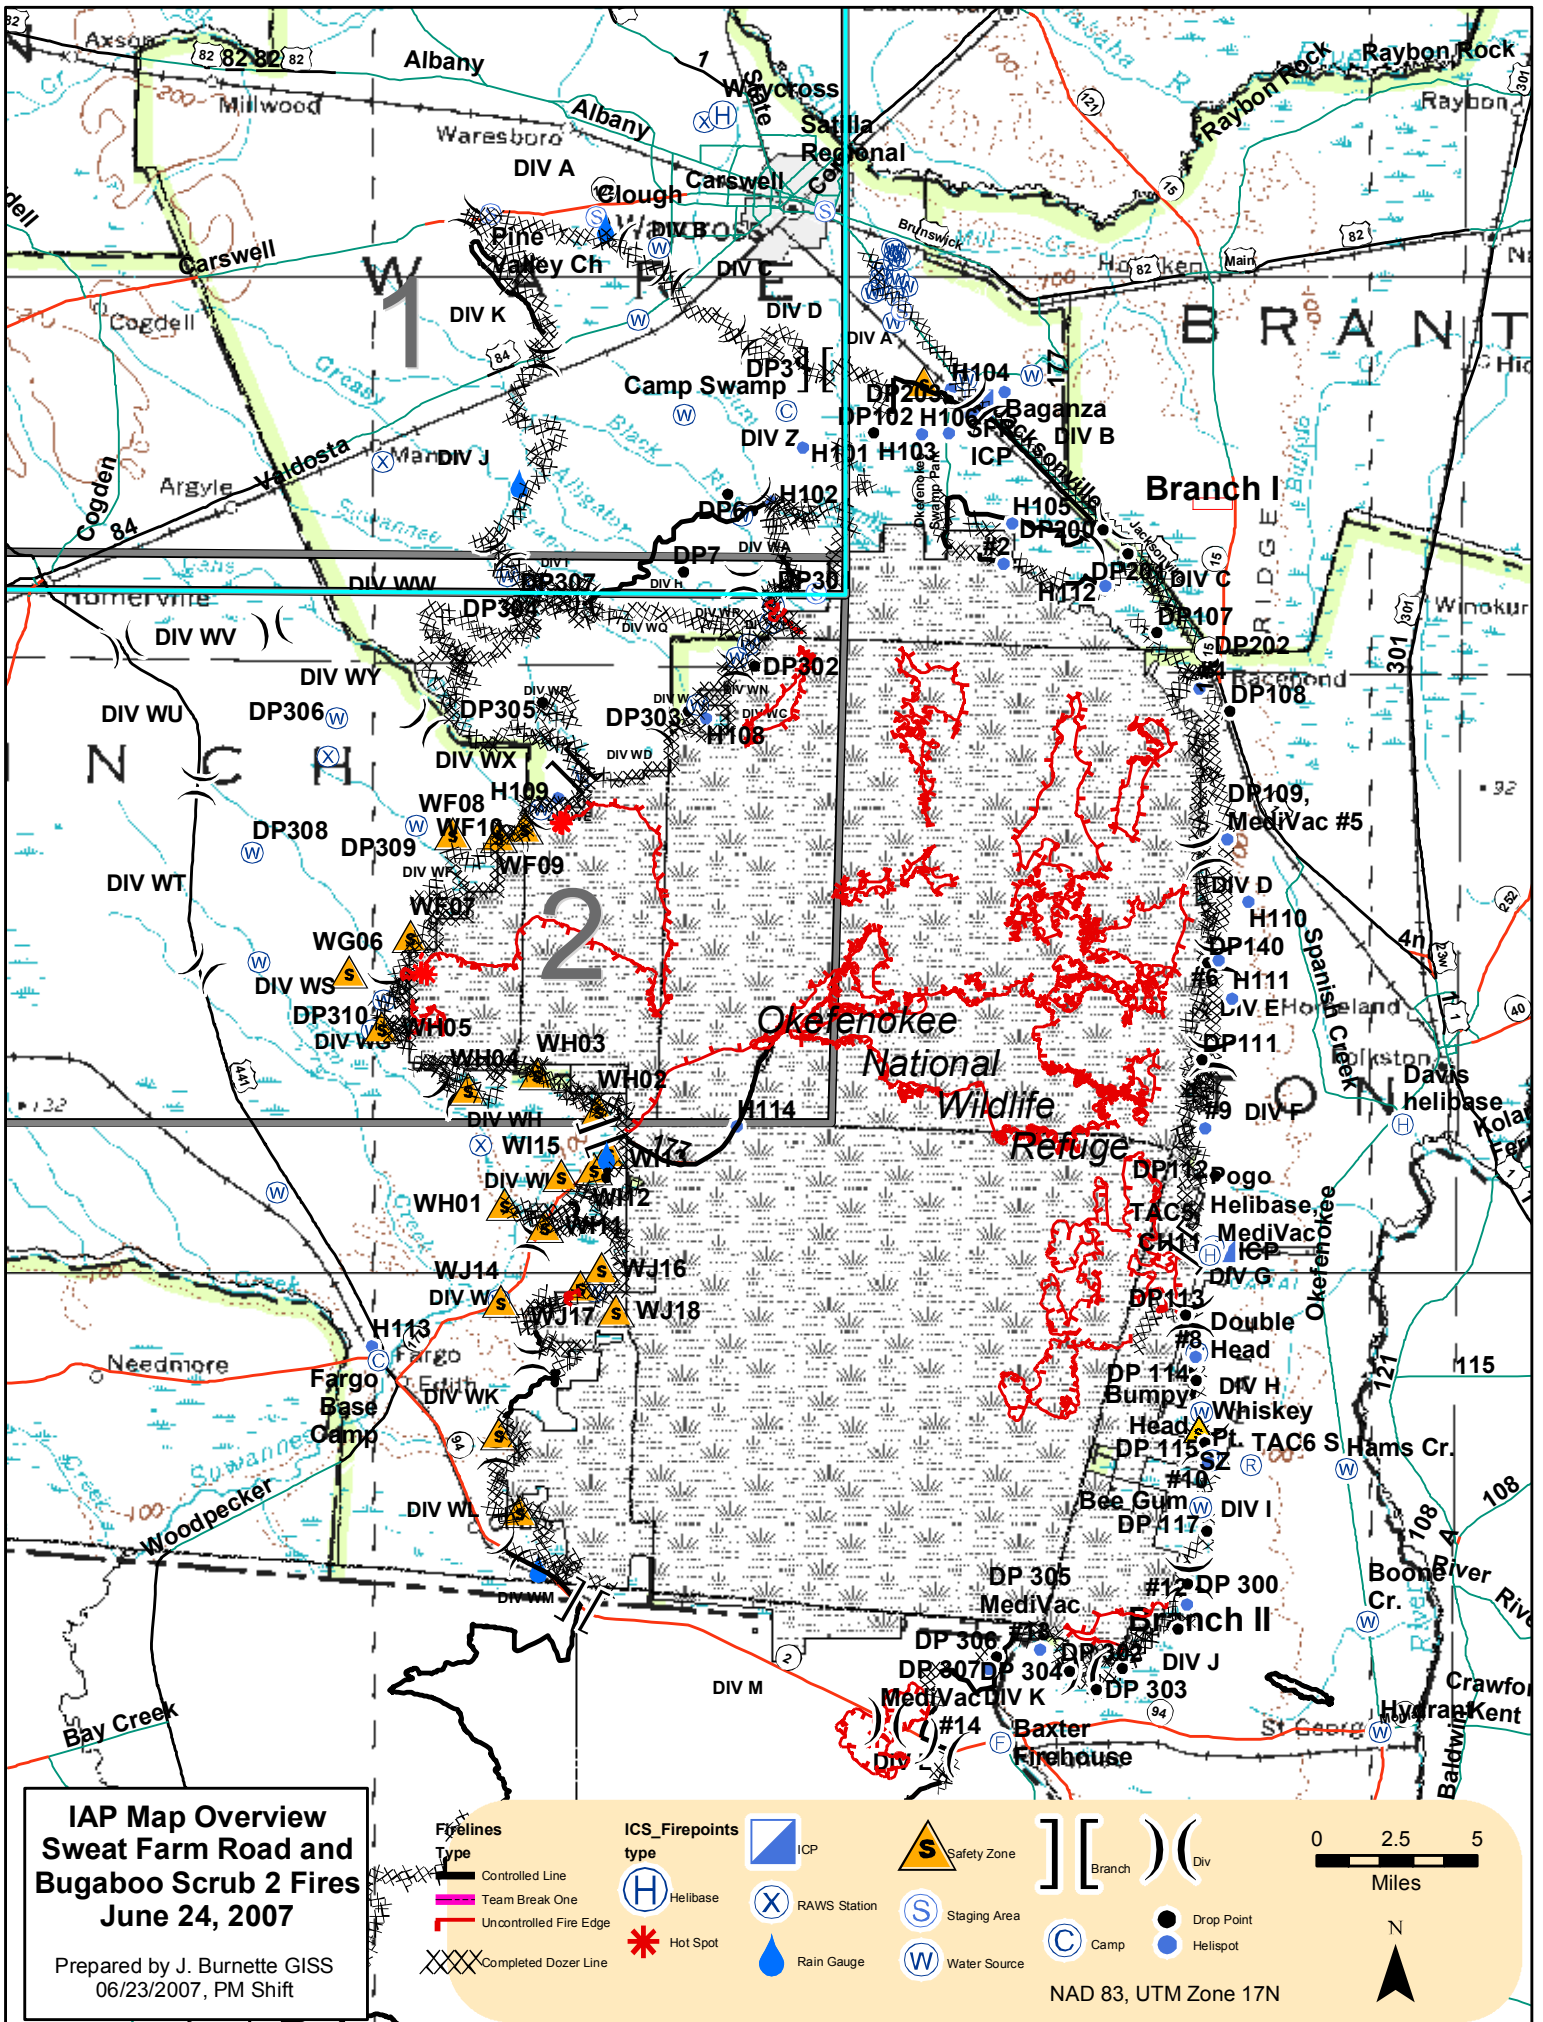

Imagine yourself to be the type of person you want to be, and then be it! You may have to let go of some bad habits and develop some more positive ones, but don't give up! Because it is only in trying and persisting that dreams come true. Expect changes to occur and realize that the power to make those changes comes from within you. Your thoughts and actions, the way you spend your time, and your choices and decisions determine who you are and who you will become. Live life to the fullest!
