Incident Within an Incident

Make a plan for a medical emergency at the beginning of your day.

Validate your plan as you change locations and as actions change.

Who is your closest medical responder? Are they on the same radio frequency as you?

Where is the ambulance you would call? Are you sure?

Rehearse the MIR (8 – line and simulate an emergency.

Today, execute your job as you have been taught. Make each decision as if your life depends on it... because it does.
