Medical: Notify line supervisor who will contact 911 or appropriate medical response.

Safety: In the perfect safety utopia, the only safety tools you would need would be your boots and saw PPE. In the perfect driving utopia, drivers will be courteous, attentive, and operate at safe speeds. Alas, not even the most diligent of safety officers can achieve safety nirvana, so please continue to wear your PPE, seat belts, and practice good situational awareness.

Notes: Run logistical needs up through your line supervisor. Always be chargin!
